THE ALCHEMY OF OPPORTUNE...

28th & 29th SEPTEMBER 2024, KOZHIKODE

Theme: Oral diseases - Exploring the new frontiers in the diagnosis and management

Hosted by Department of Oral Medicine & Radiology
Govt. Dental College, Kozhikode.

Dear Delegates,

Warmest greetings from the Organizing Committee of the National IAOMR UG Convention 2024. Delighted to host this convention in Kozhikode, a captivating city on the Malabar Coast of Kerala, where history, culture and modernity intertwine harmoniously. With roots tracing back to its days as a prominent spice trading post, Kozhikode remains a bustling commercial hub renowned for its vibrant markets, prestigious educational institutions such as the IIM, NIT and top-notch healthcare facilities, solidifying its reputation as a center for academic excellence and medical care in the region. Amidst serene backwaters, picturesque beaches and abundant biodiversity, Kozhikode offers a tranquil escape in the lap of nature. With its rich historical heritage, delectable culinary delights and vibrant contemporary culture, Kozhikode continues to mesmerize visitors.

OMRIKON 2024 promises to be a dynamic and inspiring event dedicated to the budding professionals of tomorrow. This convention offers a unique platform for undergraduate students to immerse themselves in the exciting fields of Oral Medicine and Radiology, fostering learning, innovation and professional growth. One of the most captivating aspects of this convention is the keynote lectures delivered by renowned authors and experts in the field. The session on finance management will be an invaluable opportunity to develop essential skills to help you navigate the financial complexities of running a dental practice, ensuring its growth. Take advantage of the session on “AI empowered dentistry” which will explore how AI is reshaping dental practices, enhancing diagnostic accuracy, treatment planning and patient care.

Engage yourself at OMRIKON 2024 to ignite your passion, enhance your skills and prepare for a successful career in the ever-evolving field of oral health.

Warm regards,

Conference Organizing Committee.
